MANSFIELD, OH - North Central State College is scheduled to undergo a "comprehensive evaluation visit" from the Higher Learning Commission on October 8th and 9th of this year.

NC State has been accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, which is one of six agencies in the US that provide institutional accreditation for institutions of higher education, since 1976.

The college has been in the process of conducting a self-study as part of accreditation activities for the past several years. The Higher Learning Commission's visit in the fall is the final step in their process to maintain accreditation.

The public is invited to submit comments about North Central State College through the Higher Learning Commission's website (<https://www.hlcommission.org/Student-Resources/third-party-comment.html>) or through traditional mail until September 8th, 2018.
