

North Central State
COLLEGE

Position Announcement

Radiology Clinical Preceptor Radiologic Technology Clinical Practicum

NEEDED FOR FALL SEMESTER 2022 (begins 8/15/22)

North Central State College is seeking adjunct faculty for the Radiology Program for Fall semester 2022 for the following:

Course	Locations Available
Clinical Preceptor, Radiologic Technology Clinical Practicum Provides education, evaluation and supervision for the radiography student in the clinical setting, consistent with the established standard of medical care in radiological services. DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Becomes knowledgeable of program goals, clinical objectives, and clinical evaluation systems. ○ Provides students with appropriate and adequate clinical supervision. (Direct and indirect supervision) ○ Provides students with clinical-site-specific instruction. ○ Performs clinical evaluations for students. (i.e., competencies, CI evaluations, tech evaluations and observations). ○ Maintains student logs and monitors students' clinical progress in relationship to required objectives and competencies/enters data into Trajecsys ○ Approves student clock time and time exceptions ○ Implements and monitors academic/behavioral action plans as they relate to clinical education ○ Applies assessment tools documents to facilitate program assessment ○ Demonstrate a positive, professional attitude toward students, the teaching process, and the program. ○ Participates in continuing education to improve and maintain competence in evaluation skills. ○ Meets regularly with program officials to communicate student progress, strengths, and weaknesses. ○ Assists in maintaining all student clinical records and maintains student confidentiality in accordance with college policies. ○ Participates in meetings and serves on committees consistent with the goals of the educational program. ○ Assists students in the achievement of their personal goals. ○ Checks radiation reports routinely. ○ Reviews radiographic images with students. ○ Demonstrates strong leadership skills and problem-solving techniques ○ Acts as a positive role model for students 	Ohio Health, Mansfield Hospital Thursdays 7:30 am – 3:00 pm Qualifications: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Associate of Applied Science in Radiologic Technology ● CPR certified ● ARRT registered with license to practice in Ohio. ● Two years diagnostic radiology experience preferred.
Adjunct Radiology Lab Instructor Radiologic Procedures and/or Imaging labs Flexible hours between Monday and Thursday, primarily daytime hours. Days and times vary depending on the semester, the course and the number of students. The labs are one to two hours in length. Primary duties involve supervising radiology students in the lab as they perform simulations and lab experiments in a digital imaging energized lab.	North Central State College Flexible hours and days Daytime hours Qualifications: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Associate of Applied Science in radiologic Technology ● CPR certified ● ARRT registered with license to practice in Ohio. ● Two years diagnostic radiology experience preferred. ● Teaching experience preferred.

Please express your interest by applying online at: www.ncstatecollege.edu. Click on Jobs