

3357:13-13-44 Course Auditing Policy

Course auditing involves attending classes without submitting assignments or taking examinations.

- (A) An auditor, therefore, receives neither a grade nor course credit for their participation.
- (B) The auditing fee is the same as for credit enrollment.
- (C) Permission for course auditing is available from the Office of Student Records.
- (D) Changes from audit to credit or credit to audit will be allowed only within the first week of class for a 16-week course (for condensed courses, see the Office of Student Records for exact date).
