Any student who has not successfully completed the prerequisite(s) for a course will be identified on the course roster with an asterisk (*) placed between the student's identification number and name. Should you have a student so identified, talk with him/her to determine the circumstances. If your discussion verifies inappropriate registration, advise him/her to withdraw from the course. If the student refuses to withdraw, contact the Student Records Office to have him/her withdrawn; also, inform your divisional dean.
