3357:13:14-26 Course Grading Policy and Required Grading Scale

(A) North Central State College uses the standard 4.00 point scale letter grade system (with pluses and minuses). Faculty will issue a grade to each student at the mid-point in the term and then again at the end of the term.

(B) An earned letter grade is issued to each student at the end of the term based on a set of criteria defined in the course syllabus. All faculty are required to use the North Central State College required grading scale when issuing letter grades.
