

3357:13-14-70 Academic Probation and Veterans Administration (VA) Benefits Policy

Veteran students and eligible dependents who have been certified for VA benefits are subject to a satisfactory progress standard specified by the Veterans Administration. These students will forfeit their certification for benefits when, after one academic term of probationary status, they fail to improve their term grade-point average during their next term of credit course enrollment. Additionally, these students are subject to the academic suspension and dismissal policy.
