

3357:13-14-74 Support Services Policy for Students with Disabilities

- (A) Under the Americans with Disabilities Amendments Act of 2008 (ADAAA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, “otherwise qualified” individuals with disabilities are protected from discrimination and assured equal access to educational programs.

- (B) It is the policy of North Central State College not to discriminate against students with disabilities in any program or activity of the college for which the student is qualified, and to provide reasonable accommodations and academic support services to such students with due regard for the integrity of academic programs.

- (C) In order to be eligible for services, the student must self-disclose his or her need for accommodation and provide supporting documentation that meets the college’s guidelines. Detailed information regarding the college’s guidelines can be found by contacting the college’s Specialize Support Services Office.
