ELIGIBILITY

Work-Study is a type of federal student aid. Applicants must meet federal aid qualifications in order to be employed in a work-study position. Those who cease to be employed in work-study do not gain eligibility for unemployment compensation benefits. However, becoming employed in a work-study position may affect eligibility for unemployment benefits currently received. Those receiving unemployment benefits should contact Jobs & Family Services prior to applying for work-study.

CERTIFICATION

I understand that this document is an application; it is not, and is not intended to be, a contract of employment.

I certify that all information entered on this application is true and complete to the best of my knowledge.

Should I be hired by the College, I will abide by all rules and regulations of the College.

I understand that I may be discharged from employment at the College if it determines that I made, or knowingly allowed others to make, false or misleading statements on this application or as part of the hiring process.

PERSONAL DATA RECORD

As a public educational institution, North Central State College must comply with federal government regulations and affirmative action responsibilities. To ensure the legality and fairness of its employment and hiring practices, the College is required to obtain and report to federal agencies certain information regarding its job applicants. We ask that you help us adhere to the federal government's record keeping and reporting requirements by completing this personal data record. Submission of information is voluntary and your cooperation is much appreciated.

The information requested here is for periodic government reporting only and in no way will it be used as a part of the hiring process. It will be kept in a CONFIDENTIAL file, separate from the rest of the employment application.

Applicants for employment at the College are considered for positions without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, marital or veteran status, medical condition or disability.
