

Federal Student Loan Default Clearance Form

- Use black ink and print clearly.
 - Each page of documentation must include the student's name and social security number.
 - All documentation must be on 8 1/2 x 11 inch paper.
 - All documents must be legible.
 - All default clearances must be received by the first week of the quarter for aid eligibility to be restored that quarter. Any defaults cleared after the first week will be reviewed for the next quarter

Instructions: Complete all of Section A and provide the documentation described in Section B. If you have more than one default, attach documentation certifying you have cleared the default for each loan. Letters clearing default for several loans must identify each loan by its loan number or term of enrollment (the time period covered by the loan).
