

Nomination form for the North Central Ohio Hall of Excellence Benefitting the North Central State College Foundation

The North Central State College Foundation is seeking nominations for possible induction into the North Central Ohio Hall of Excellence. The Hall of Excellence is located at North Central State College's Ralph Phillips Conference Center on the 3rd floor of the James W. Kehoe Center for Advanced Learning in Shelby, Ohio. The inductees are honored at the Hall of Excellence, held in the spring of each year. NCSC Foundation invites citizens to nominate deserving individuals from Richland, Ashland, and Crawford Counties.

The next event will be held on Thursday April 10, 2025. Please attach documentation to substantiate your nomination, including up to 3 letters of support that are a combination of personal, business and community involvement, to show all facets of the nominee. The Hall of Excellence inductees are selected by a cross representation of the community, including members of our Board of Trustees, College staff, and past honorees. The new inductees will be selected on September 19, 2024 and notification will follow.

Purpose: To honor the spirit of North Central Ohio residents, past and present, whose vision, creativity, boldness of purpose, and community involvement, exemplify excellence in our region.

- The nominee must live in, work in, or be a native of North Central Ohio counties.
- Nominees should have demonstrated a significant contribution(s) in their field, and commitment to the community through leadership by giving of their time, treasures, and talent.
- Nominees for posthumous awards will also be considered.
