Academic Integrity, Plagiarism, Cheating, and AI

Many tools and resources exist to help and support students in their academic careers. Your course instructor has included resources to help with your learning and engagement with course content. While it may be beneficial for students to obtain additional information on course content beyond those provided in the course or by North Central State College, when it comes to submitted coursework and assignments, students are held to and expected to adhere to NCSC Institutional policies and procedures, including the Academic Integrity (Plagiarism, Cheating, and AI) Policy. Here is a link to the entire policy:

<https://ncstatecollege.edu/documents/President/PoliciesProcedures/PolicyManual/Final%20PDFs/14-65.pdf>

- As noted in this policy:
The student's work should be the product of the student's own efforts, unless the student clearly indicates otherwise (for example through citations and references). Students should clarify any questions on proper citation with faculty. Academic honesty is an important element of mature, responsible learning. (North Central State College, 2023, 3357:13-14-65 Academic Integrity (Plagiarism, Cheating, and AI) Policy)
- Thus, all coursework and assignments submitted are to be the student's own work and effort. Any questions about coursework should be directed to your course instructor. Violations of this policy are handled through the Academic Integrity Procedure which can be found here:
<https://ncstatecollege.edu/documents/President/PoliciesProcedures/PolicyManual/Final%20PDFs/14-651.pdf>

1. Course Assignments, Reflections, and Papers

- a. Several chapter assignments/activities will be completed in this course. Some of these assignments will be brief reflection/reaction type of writing and others will be more formal paper assignments.
- b. Details and specific assignment information is located in Canvas.
- c. Late course assignments are accepted with 10% per day late deductions.
- d. Proofread and spell-check all assignments! Make certain to use proper grammar, spelling and punctuation.
- e. Reviewing instructor feedback and comments on written assignments is a strong key for success in this class! Feedback can help you improve your future coursework.

2. Discussion Questions/Discussion Board Posts (DQs)

- There are TWO due dates associated with discussion questions: ONE due date for your initial post to the topic and ONE due date for your response posts to initial posts made by others.
- Because of the interactive nature of discussion boards, late discussion board posts are deducted by 3 points. This deduction applies to BOTH initial posts and response posts. So, if an initial post is late and response posts are late, 6 points will be deducted from your DQ point score.
- There is no required length for discussion board posts, although make certain that you thoroughly and thoughtfully respond to any question or topic presented.
- Initial posts to the discussion prompt need to include a source citation (refer to the rubric for more information).
- Students are expected to RESPOND to a minimum of TWO initial posts made by classmates for each discussion topic.
- Refer to the discussion board information and rubric posted in Canvas.

3. Exams

- Four exams are assigned throughout the term.
- Each exam covers 4 chapters and corresponding module information for those chapters.
- Exams are comprised of multiple choice and short answer questions.
- PRIOR arrangements need to be made with the instructor if a student wants to complete the exam after the exam due date noted in the course. Students who do not proactively correspond with the instructor about alternate exam arrangements will be subject to a 20% exam score deductions.

IV. Examination Policy:

- All exams must be completed by the assigned due date and time. PRIOR arrangements need to be made with the instructor if a student wants to complete the exam after the exam due date noted in the course. Students who do not proactively correspond with the instructor about alternate exam arrangements will be subject to a 20% exam score deduction.
- Exams are open book/open note. Please note that your exams are timed, so you should be familiar with the chapters PRIOR to starting your exam. You WILL NOT have enough time to read the chapters and search for every single exam question answer if you are not familiar with the chapters. ALSO, if you are using the e-Book, be very careful when clicking and navigating from one screen to another so you do not inadvertently submit your exam prior to completing it.
 - Once you begin an exam, you MUST complete the exam.
 - NOTE: Course exams are challenging and require critical thinking and application of course material. DO NOT assume that being able to use your book will result in easy high scores, as this may not be the case.

V. Class Attendance and Homework Make-Up Policy:

- Students are required to make posts to discussion boards, complete module assignments, take module quizzes, or course exams, and submit other course assignments by indicated due dates (refer to the Course Calendar), serving as a means of monitoring who is actively “attending” class. Students who do not log into the course and submit the required assignments on a regular basis may be reported for non-attendance.

Late Assignment Point Deductions:

- Exams – 20% grade deduction unless prior arrangements are made with the instructor
- Discussion Questions/ Discussion Board Posts (DQs) – 3 points deducted for late submissions (this applies to Initial Posts and Response Posts separately, as there are TWO due dates noted for all discussion questions).
- Course Assignments, Reflections, and Papers – 10% per day late

VI. Classroom Expectations:

All students are expected to demonstrate professional behavior and use language appropriate for the classroom learning experience. Behavior in the classroom (this includes online classroom formats) should convey respect for your classmates and the instructor; and foster an atmosphere conducive to learning.

1. Online Course Conduct: Netiquette, Emoticons and Conveying Feelings in an Online Environment
In face-to-face conversations, social signals, facial expression, and body language suggest how participants feel about a topic and discussion. Online course participants generally do not have the luxury of seeing or hearing their classmates directly. Others may interpret your messages and discussion posts differently due to the lack of in-person, face-to-face communication. As a result, online communities have developed tools to assist members in sharing their facial expressions, emotional reactions and other feelings. Please note that many of these techniques may be used in the Canvas Discussion Boards and with Email and Message tools.
2. Use proper grammar and spelling in your discussion posts, emails, messages and papers.
 - a. You should write in complete sentences, capitalize the first word of every sentence, and utilize proper punctuation. For instance, the word “I” is always capitalized, so don’t just type “i”.
 - b. Note: Canvas has spell check in the Discussion Board to assist with these components.
3. Things you should NOT do in this online classroom:
 - a. It is not acceptable to use slang (e.g. “sup” or “yo”)
 - b. Omit all profanity from your online course interactions. Similarly, do not use symbols to represent expletives (%$!)
 - c. No texting abbreviations - use complete and standard spelling:
Examples: type out “you” NOT u
“are” NOT r
Use “to”, “two”, or “too” NOT 2
“later” NOT L8r
type out “in my opinion” NOT IMO
