You must complete at least one assignment within the first two weeks of the course to be counted as an attending, participating student.

Students who do not complete an assignment by Friday of the First week of the term will be withdrawn from the course for non-attendance.

Any work that is turned in to this instructor to be graded must be grammatically correct and free of spelling errors. Any work that cannot be understood because of poor grammar, run-on sentences, etc. will not be graded and the student will receive a “0”. If you need assistance with your writing skills, contact our student success center for assistance.

Course Number: CRMJ 2036
Semester / Session: Spring 2026

Course Title: Report Writing for Criminal Justice Professional
Start / End Date: 01/12/2026 – 03/06/2026

You must abide by all due dates to receive full credit. All work must be your own unless you are authorized to work in groups.

If you have any questions, please email me using your NC State email account.

You will have work that is to be submitted as an assignment and others submitted as a discussion. Students are required to respond to a classmate's discussion posting for each discussion assignment. These responses will have a minimum number of words. Responses will be weighted as 10 points each. You will receive a "0", if you fail to meet the minimum word requirements. Responses are ONLY for the discussion assignments. Responses: usually will consist of.....do you agree with your classmates' answer? Do you disagree....explain why or why not....do you have questions about their answer? Do you have helpful pieces of information to share with your classmate about the assignment? Etc. Responses are meant to simulate the traditional classroom experience when the instructor asks students to respond to a question or comment about an answer another student offered.

Work that is incomplete will not be graded. If a student is having difficulty with writing skills, please seek assistance from the student success center. Students must use proper grammar in all communications.

If you have any questions, please email me using your NC State email account. Emails (not canvas inbox messages) come directly to my personal phone. I prefer that you do not use the in-box inside Canvas IF you want a question answered swiftly.

No private email accounts can be used. You may only your nc state issued email account for communication with me.

IV. Examination Policy:

1. The reasons for which a student will be excused from taking an examination
  - a. Hospitalization (with documented verification)
  - b. Death in the immediate family (with documented verification)
  - c. Personal illness or illness in immediate family - (doctor's excuse required).
2. Both the mid-Term and Final Exams will be done online and will count for 30% of your final grade.

V. Class Attendance and Homework Make-Up Policy:

Your class attendance is based on the entries that you make during the threaded discussion question topics. You are required to participate three separate days beginning midnight on Monday until midnight Sunday. Each input must be a minimum of 100 words of good content, backed by scholarly sources along with proper punctuation and spelling.

VI. Classroom Expectations:

To be successful in an online educational environment, students must interact and collaborate with other class members and instructors. In an online course, the primary way this is accomplished is with "threaded discussions". Therefore, please pay close attention to the threaded discussion policy.

Your discussion question participation is essential to your final grade. You are required to participate in no less than 3 quality inputs/ replies to the discussion questions on three separate days. This course is all about quality and the content you put into each assignment and discussion questions. A minimum of 100 words is required for is "threaded discussion" reply or original response to the "threaded discussion" Topics.

Remember, the class sessions simulate meetings and discussion among co-workers in the workplace. To respect the rights of all, please:

- Show respect to your classmates by using positive feedback within the discussion rooms and email
- Negative feedback will not be tolerated. You will receive a warning for the first time. Further use of negative feedback will result in a “0” grade for that assignment. If negative feedback is used on a third occasion, you may be removed from the class.
